September 2026 comments:

Late summer/early autumn rain!

No doubt many are grateful for the rain, yet as many predicted – there would be localised flooding – if only just temporarily. Yet if the heavy rains went on relentlessly for 10 days after the (what!?! 6 to 8 weeks duration of) potential drought conditions – the grounds are so badly compacted by then – the grounds will not be the best recipient to just absorb the liquid (like Mayor Quimby's wife at an open bar! – Shwing!!) and make everything safe again ….. we all need to take more care!

Water butts at the ready? 1,600 Cathays residents households with 210 litres of water capture each (that is 336 tonnes of water) – additionally Natural Soakways – again just digging a hole in your garden – 1 metre down, then fill with rocks for 50 cm then 50 cm topsoil and grass on top – do you think this will help Cathays and wider Cardiff at all? The power is in your hands (and holes) !! 100,000 homes with 1 ton of water absorbed each – that is 100,000 tonnes of water stopped adding to the flood ….. thing about it lovely neighbours!! Your efforts count!

2020 was another example of this – we forget too quickly the floods in Cardiff, the decimation in the valleys etc in early 2020 – as the global lockdown took precedence over everything else! Then you forgot lockdown as the wars and cost of living crisis kicked off (Stop the planet I went to get off please!!) as life goes at breakneck speed.

Yet please remember we had major droughts in lockdown (part 1) where conservation groups were asking the locale to water the trees – not just the wildflowers!!

As individuals you are smart !! As people gathered we are dumb as a skunk! I am just asking you to consider looking after your own patch – you lead by example; people will follow positive examples!! Be the role model to your community has I know millions of you can be!!

Local wildlife decimation! Not quite!

Okay – it may have been 'the next scorcher' after the infamous 1976 Heatwave – yet the 2026 one peaked temperatures – including 1976. Tough times ahead!!

THANK YOU to the local Cathays residents who did a lot of responsible preservation of their wildflower species. Where every year it may have been a bonanza of indigenous seedlings flowering near to the 'parent plants' – this time the heat and lack of water (even with regular watering) decimated much of the seedlings.

I am guessing many of you did your bit, yet thank you to certain Cathays residents for safeguarding the local cowslip, foxgloves, betony etc that we've been growing in Cathays the last 25 (ish) year's – thank you for keeping it going - for 2027/2028 stock onwards!! You guys rock!!

10 year's of Brodies Coffee

Many of you have enjoyed a coffee and a snack at 'The Cabin' – which is 1 of 3 of Brodies Coffee in Gorsedd Gardens next to the Museum and Park Place (Town end).

Ian and his team have celebrated 10 year's of Brodies Coffee – a testament to local businesses that never give up! No - that is not a dig at local business that set up and collapse within a few years – at least they all tried hard!!

As someone who has zero clue about business, even I know that the independent and franchise businesses need support to keep the UK's High Streets/Commerce Street's open!! How can this be improved?

Somebody – somewhere must have a magic formula; without massive reliance on subsidies, yes - a few tax breaks …. Whatever is missing from this equation needs to be found. Yet what may work in Cardiff, does not mean it will work in Bristol, Swansea or Aberdeen – what business dynamics can be looked at reflected off social values/norms/local practise? Come on people – THINK !!

Congrats manager Kyle!! New Dad!!

It was good news to hear that Kyle and his husband have successfully adopted a baby after all this time, effort and build up – an amazing story!

After all the interviews, background checks, assessments and a patience level worthy of a sonnet – finally our young 30 something professional couple can now be not just one generation – but two! Congrats gents!

So … 8 weeks off work to enjoy being two dads to a lovely (very little) one!! Proud of you both! We will all see you in 2 months, no doubt walking around as a proud young dad. It's been a long time coming – yet well done!

The world needs more adoptee parents – in every country! I ponder what teens and 20 somethings now will be one parent adoptees in the future? By the time standards in the 2040's roll around, adoption protocol will be so tight you'd have to be on stupidly high income, provide a proper home and ensure you can be there for the little one …… not working all hours in the week!

The social concepts will never stop playing out ……. The majority of us support the traditional family concept, and the step-mum's and step-dad's that have stepped up (in decades before, and the decades to come) – the amazing adoptee couples – and just the good neighbours and godparents who step up when the need arises. You all make us stronger as planet!

The media will peddle all this negative bad stuff …… yet on a street-by-street basis you all make us shine! Thank you to the surrounding neighbours who help our young families (and families of all ages!) – great job!

Token donating contributions ….. it all counts!!

It feels a little hypocritical – yet it is one thing to share the revised Cardiff Foodbank wishlist/ask list for food products …. I've made a pact with myself to contribute one product a month – so for August it was hot chocolate, the July it was potato can etc.

It goes without saying those (on a global level) who have very little often have the most generous souls to donate/give/help out. Please remember this…..

For those that are overwhelmed with daily life, that token one small gift a month helps a lot. Imagine if 5% to 10% of Cardiff folk gave to Cardiff Foodbank? The positive potential causal impact is massive …… please think about it. Those nappies, sanitary towels, chocolates, small pre-made meals ….. it all helps!!

Jumping the gun!!

So a few things in the update caused a higher spike in comments than usual ……..

When I wrote a pressure valve had been released a few months ago – some idiots though that was a dig at the Senedd election outcome!!

When they tried the snide comments …. I voted for Plaid, yet when I put down 'I was surprised how many residents went Reform' – immediately the wrong assumption of idiots jumping down throats …. Mind you …. All Mr Farrage has got to say is 'we will bring back the cane to schools and public order to communities' – you think that will get any extra voting numbers!?!?! Dear me Rodders!!

Regarding the 'pressure valve comments' – or the wording in last months community update should have been written as self-destruct – not self-delete!! It was a late evening and a typo!! Ya-boo!!

I was referring to 3-4 local issues that have been dragging out now for 60 months (July 2021 post-lockdown) it is funny knowing the entire 1 person (I am pretty sure for one month 2 people actually read this community update!) on the planet who reads this had to refer some of the entries to non-subscribers – who then felt it necessary to approach me (very kindly) in the pub with a totally wrong end of the stick!! My goodness – one word out – and all that!?! We should all be careful what we write ….

My goodness …. sometimes a few of the 8 Billion souls on this mudball are entirely too serious!! Think wiser people ….. very few people get a 2nd chance of life ….. live it!! We've lost too many good souls in recent decades across Cathays – live every day to the full, you never know when it is your last. Please celebrate every day!

Fairoaks Primary School new entrance

As many of you have seen, on the connecting roads of Whitchurch Road, Cathays Terrace and Fairoak Road the builders have been hard at work preparing the new entrance to Fairoaks Primary School.

Led by Mrs Shipton-Jones (School leader) this primary school has the prospect of being a Cardiff leading school … what can you do to get behind and support your local primary school? Fairoaks Primary School will always benefit from residents doing their bit!

I possibly may have some knowledge of (as a mass of you all) that you are capable of doing something positive and mobilised when needed ….. yet do you believe?!?

60 months in the pubs ….

No – I haven't forgotten "A tale of two pubs" or "am I banned yet!?!" – it will run over a few months in future community updates, some stories need to be shared!

It was hilarious knowing a few deviants were getting twitchy with recent community update comments ….

The reason pseudo names will be given to both venues, as at the end of the day – we need out 'dive-pubs' where the dregs and deviants can hang out ….. namely as they have been pretty much banned from all the decent pubs and social venues that many of us enjoy and are grateful exist …… so the chi all balances itself out.

With this particular local study of two infamous pubs, with so many lessons learnt and multiple outcomes highlighting so much to me – good design and practise can nix so many deviants ……. Viva la deux dives!

Do NOT take matters into your own hands!!

This comment is not aimed at one person – rather several dozen dear local personalities over some incidents of recent times.

Never take the law into your hands, revenge will never give you peace! Those who act too quickly and so something foolish may face the wrath of the UK courts …

It may be an idea if you I share with you multiple incidents from the last 7-8 years of dealing with deviants – and how it won't be some overblown Hollywood movie of dramatic violence, shouting, drama, stand off's etc.

Deep down the idiots know they've screwed up, yet too arrogant – or too locked down in compromise that they can not back themselves out of a situation.

With some real whoppers told in 2020 onwards, it is long overdue that a few stories were shared of better practises that certain decent residents have led by example with ….. you can do the same.

Christine Windels – InterAid legend / Queen of Crwys Road – RIP dear lady!

Pioneer, Heart of Gold, Modest & Amazing – you will be missed by many Christine!!

Tina and the wider Windels family and friends wish to share with the local Cathays community that on Thursday 13th August 2026 that Christine Windels had sadly passed away.

InterAid only closed in mid-2026 so we lost not just an amazing shop in Cathays – you all lost an even more amazing lady who cared a great deal for many of you. The flowers, messages left in cards and online reflect what an incredible lady Christine was and very well respected in your community!

Tina shares a history of InterAid and mum's valiant efforts:

One day back in 1982 my mum Christine visited the small local charity shop to donate some clothes, she was asked to "watch the shop" whilst the elderly assistant went out the back room, what an adventure that turned out to be, little did she know then that over 40 years later of just "watching the shop" would she sadly be saying goodbye to her happy place. Christine happily opened daily Monday to Saturday come rain, shine or snow giving her time for free in monetary terms though priceless if she was the smiling face to light up somebody else's day.

It was a social space for those just passing along Crwys Rd enroute to the then post office, Co-op, butchers, GP surgery or even Fred's Bargain Store or Shaws.

Over the years Inter Aid Charity Shop has supported many charities Cardiff Rape Crisis, Huggard Centre, Ty Gwyn Special School Mini-Bus appeal (the bus drove past with the children on board for her to see Inter Aid printed on the side of it with thanks), SOCELEX animal Sanctuary, FForest Uchaf Horse and Pit Pony Sanctuary and Homeless Cats Cardiff, Royal Regiment of Wales, sponsoring children's local football kits and buying them water bottles.

Christine would often help the homeless giving them free toiletries, clothing and footwear, school uniform was free too. Inter Aid became known as an Aladdin's Cave of curiosity; truly one man's trash is another man's treasure. With the ever changing footfall of the times it was well known and established amongst students for their rummage room upstairs.

We don't know exactly how much Christine has raised over the years, we do know it is well into the hundreds of thousands of pounds.

Over the years Christine has been supported by many volunteers, she could not have done all this without their help too. Sadly due to ill health Christine is longer able to "watch the shop" and must close the doors on this adventure with heartfelt thanks to those who volunteered, donated, purchased or just popped in to say hello.

Now RIP dear lady …….. 13th August 2026:

Thank you Christine, your soul left us on 13th August – yet many will remember you as the 'Queen of Crwys Road'. One of many of this tremendous community that made Cathays what it is for many decades! Thank you Christine for everything!! Rest in Peace dear lady.

ffotogallery

Join us for an informal, intimate, evening event built around art, conversation and community.

The session will open with short presentations from four local artists, each of whom will share their recent and current work.

Hettie Judah then takes a seat at the centre for an open, hour-long conversation, taking questions about the art world, about her work, about navigating a creative life. Bring whatever's on your mind.

Afterwards, stay for refreshments and a chat. Hettie will also be selling and signing copies of her new book, How to Enter the Art World …After — a myth-busting guide for artists whose lives are complicated and human.

With presentations by:

October 2026 – Cathays Monthly Update

Get your Halloween and Remembrance/Armistice event posters in please!!

…… Yes !! I know the community update goes out late (you can flay me outside the castle a few hours before Armageddon begins in 2045!!) – It does take about 50 hours (chasing people up, editing takes ages, checking for the many errors I make etc) each month folks – give me a break!!

Please do get the Armistice/Remembrance Posters in please – will put it in the back of October 2026 as well as obviously early November 2026 community update.

It's not just about the souls who sacrificed their lives in this country – it is about the souls of every country that we should remember!!

Regards,

Paulus
